What is this program, and why do we have it?

Public Relations promotes who we are, what we do and why we matter.

What can you do?

1. Promote a positive image of the American Legion Auxiliary by supporting and promoting the efforts of Goal 5 of the Centennial Strategic Plan (With The American Legion, Build Brand Loyalty) and the use of the variety of public relations materials and resources available online.

Ideas:

Member

- Give an Auxiliary magazine gift subscription to your local library and doctors’ offices. See the subscription form at the end of this program Plan.
- Distribute ALA brochures and posters in the community at libraries, job fairs, medical facilities and post homes. Print brochures online from the Member Resources section at www.ALAforVeterans.org, or order them from your department secretary.
- Wear your officially branded ALA apparel and “Honoring Their Service” button when out and about. Button order forms are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Be prepared to answer when asked who the Auxiliary is, what we do in your community, and why we matter.

Unit

- Build relationships with your local media and political figures to educate them on who we are, what we do and why we matter.
- Write a letter to the editor and/or news release for patriotic holidays and events. Templates can be found in Marketing & Promotional Materials in the Member Resources section at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
- Order a copy of the “Step Up, ALA” public service announcement DVD ($10) to take to your local television stations and request they air it, or request a free 15-second version for your public broadcasting station. To order the 60-second version DVD or request the 15-second version, email pr@ALAforVeterans.org.

Department

- Be familiar with Auxiliary public service announcements (PSAs), brochures and other ALA publications. Educate units on materials available and how to obtain them. View the compilation of resources in the 2015 Marketing Resource Guide, available in the Marketing & Promotional Materials in the Member Resources section at www.ALAforVeterans.org.
• Monitor news coverage to share with department and national leadership, if needed.

HOW TO WRITE A NEWS RELEASE

Committee:
Public Relations

Submitted by:
National Public Relations Committee

Contact information for questions:
pr@ALAfVeterans.org

How to write a news release:

- Gather correct and pertinent information.
- Prepare a news release with the Who (who is invited and who is the sponsor), What (what is the ALA information/event/program), When (day, date, time), Where (location, street address, city), Why (provides a reason the event is being held) and How (other special information a member or the general public would need to know in order to participate in this event). Templates are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

![Inverted Pyramid Diagram]

- The inverted pyramid (shown above) is a common method for writing news articles and releases. It can be thought of as a simple upside-down triangle. The widest part at the top represents the most important information, and it tapers down in order of diminishing importance. Who, What, When, Where, Why and How should all be included in the opening paragraph or two. This format is valued because readers can leave the story at any point and understand it, even if they don't have all of the details. By placing less important information at the end of the story, it can be removed so the article can fit a fixed size, or it can be “cut from the bottom.”
- Include contact information: a name, phone number and email address.
- Provide deadline information if applicable.
- Distribute public relations information via resources available in your community—to newspapers, radio stations, TV stations, blogs; post to a website; display advertising posters on community boards, in city hall, grocery stores, VA hospitals; share information with other persons who may help your unit reach the target audience such as a veteran service officer, Family Readiness Group or National Guard armory personnel.
- With today’s technology, it is imperative that your information be shared electronically. Utilize Auxiliary websites, Facebook, Twitter, Google+, LinkedIn and YouTube.
- Online public relations resources are available at www.ALAforVeterans.org.

HOW TO SET UP A DEPARTMENT OR UNIT WEBSITE

Committee:
Public Relations

Submitted by:
National Public Relations Committee

Contact Information for Questions:
pr@ALAfForVeterans.org

1. Determine the purpose of the site – to attract new members, communicate with current ones, or both.

2. Decide on a domain name (YourSiteName.org) and hosting (service that connects your site to the Internet). You will probably have to pay a nominal fee for the domain name. You may be able to find a host for free.

4. Include general information about the American Legion Auxiliary.

5. Use the content suggestions located in the ALA Branding Guide.

6. Include at least one link to www.ALAforVeterans.org on your website.

7. When including information on your website from www.ALAforVeterans.org, include links to the information rather than posting it directly to your site. If information changes at the national level, the link will ensure your website visitors receive the latest information.

8. Update your website regularly. People visiting your website will keep checking it if the content is current and fresh.

9. Avoid including information on your website that contains internal language and acronyms that may confuse users. Examples include NEC, PNP, PDP.

10. Care should be exercised when linking to other websites. Information included on websites linked to external sites should be supportive of the Auxiliary’s mission, message and values. Suggested links include www.ALAforVeterans.org, www.legion.org, and your department American Legion Auxiliary website.

11. Check your website regularly to ensure the links are working properly. Broken links will frustrate users, and they may stop checking your site.

12. Be sure to include contact information for your department or unit in an easy-to-find location on your site. Also include contact information for the webmaster.
