HOW TO ESTABLISH A PAST PRESIDENTS PARLEY IN YOUR DEPARTMENT

Committee:
Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:
pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Establish a Past Presidents Parley in your department

- Departments are encouraged to establish a Past Presidents Parley (PPP) consisting of their past department presidents. These groups can continue their support of the organization by using their experience, knowledge and wisdom to be goodwill ambassadors and to strengthen our organization and help maintain its growth.

- PPPs can play an important part in the mentoring of current members to develop knowledgeable leadership within the department. They can support and assist in a recruitment effort for new members.

- They are encouraged to select a mission-outreach project of interest and support the program with time and/or financial contributions. They may choose to have a courtesy fund and chairman to remember past presidents when the need arises.

- They should make themselves available to current officers as well as potential candidates for office. Their guidance and constructive feedback should help the department maintain continuity and good cooperation.

- This group could hold a luncheon during department meetings to share current department news. They may choose to donate or raise funds for ex-servicewomen and PPP nurses scholarships. They may discuss making specific donations or how they could assist with issues within their department to help create a positive result. A discussion could be held about ideas for proposing a resolution to help clarify a questionable Constitution & Bylaws article. They may decide to take a leadership role regarding a proposal from the national organization. Some members of the Parley may be serving at the national level.

- They could invite the current department president and any national guest who may be in attendance at their meeting.

- Your knowledge can be invaluable on the department’s Finance Committee, as PPP chairman, or as parliamentarian, if appointed.

- Continue to be involved: You are a valuable department member.
HOW TO HOST A NATIONAL-LEVEL VISITOR AT YOUR DEPARTMENT

Committee:
Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:
pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Suggestions for hosting a national-level visitor at your department

• Make sure all pre-visit forms are filled out completely and correctly. The national president’s form requests detailed information regarding events, expectations for speaking obligations, appropriate attire, etc. Visitors should be informed of any changes made to the information submitted on the pre-visit forms.

• Identify a distinguished guest committee that will be responsible for all activities during the visit. This committee should be familiar with the area and will represent your organization in a professional manner. Make the committee members aware of the dress code for the visit. Have them develop a plan that assigns individual responsibilities. If you have a national chairman, national officer or Past National President in your department, it is suggested she be on this committee.

• If the guest is flying into the area, designate who will be at the airport at the scheduled time of arrival. The visit begins at the airport. Be on time and either at the gate or at the luggage area to make your guest feel welcome. Assist with luggage at every location. Transport her in a clean vehicle that has a large luggage storage area. Many times, the guest has been traveling for several days and has multiple suitcases. Ask if she has eaten or would like to stop at a suitable restaurant prior to escorting her to the final destination.

• If possible, pick up the key to your guest’s room before her arrival. Check the room to make sure everything is prepared for her visit. You may choose to place a small gift, bottled water or small snacks in the room. When you arrive at the location where your guest will be staying, escort her immediately to her room. Allow the guest some time to unpack, check her messages and relax before the first scheduled event.

• She should be escorted at all times. Ask if she prefers breakfast in her room or in the dining room and what time she would like to retire to her room.

• Facilitating a reception or social activity is an effective way of enabling the national-level visitor to meet as many members as possible.

• The department president will introduce the guest. When addressing an audience, she should speak last. In a processional, the national president would be the last to be introduced and the last to be seated or step onto the platform.

• A gift list of items given to the visitor is always appreciated. Send one list with the gifts mailed to her home and send a copy to National Headquarters. Prior to the day of departure, ask the visitor what time she would like to arrive at the airport. Many guests prefer to be checked in and waiting at their departure gate one hour prior to boarding the plane. Please plan departure day events accordingly.
HOW TO MENTOR A NEW MEMBER

Committee:
Past Presidents Parley

Contact Information for Questions:
pastpresidentsparley@ALAforVeterans.org

Unit Past President Parley Responsibilities

• Offer to escort a new member to your meeting.

• Introduce her to the president as well as other members in attendance. Ask her to share a little about herself. The information could be helpful in determining in which committee she may have the greatest interest. Have each attendee introduce herself.

• As each program report is given, request that the chairman explain the purpose of the program and how the unit supports it. Explain the duties of the officers, the chairmen and the committee members.

• Help maintain a positive attitude and assist in avoiding controversy during the meeting. Interject some occasional humor to help make the meeting fun.

• A prospective member is more likely to join if she feels she is joining an organization that is fun and whose activities support the community. All members will be more willing to attend meetings and assist with activities if the meetings are short and interesting. Remind the members to try new ideas without criticism if they fail. Suggest trying something else. Help keep the meeting moving toward a positive conclusion.

• Evaluate your new member’s capabilities. If you feel she is ready to participate, ask her which of the programs holds her greatest interest. Discourage naming a new member as an officer or a chairman, but instead suggest she be given the opportunity of working on a committee with an experienced chairman. Let her know you are willing to mentor her and assist by answering her questions. Remember to praise her efforts.

• Past presidents should advise when asked, but preferably not serve as a chairman. Chairmanships should be held by other members so they may learn the programs and become good unit leaders who may develop an interest in moving into district, county or department positions.

• As a past president, you may wish to promote the nomination of a Unit Member of the Year. You may take the lead in recommending servicewomen to submit for an award. Develop a fundraising activity for donations to the nursing scholarship program.

• Continue to support through your ongoing leadership!
